

Year 5 and 6 home activities

English	Maths
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• READ! Can you complete the book challenge?• Finish writing your story about your Harry Potter character• Write your characters biography (your Harry Potter based character)• Go to www.pobble365.com and complete the daily writing tasks• Email Miss Townsend about what you're up to misstownsend@south-stoke.oxon.sch.uk• Make a model of your character's house• Use spelling shed www.spellingshed.com Keep an eye out for any tournaments Miss T sets up• Practise some reading/SPaG SATs papers (Year 6)• Keep a diary of your time off• Write a letter to someone else in school and post it to school (Miss T will send it on then for you unless you know their address)• Write a newspaper article about the main event in your Harry Potter story• Learn the 3/4 and 5/6 spelling lists	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Make revision posters for addition, subtraction, multiplication and division• Make a board game for using fractions, decimals and percentages• Go onto times table rockstars www.ttrockstars.com Keep an eye out for any battles Miss T sets up• Practise some SATs papers (Year 6)• Practise measures-weight ingredients and do some baking, measure capacity and make some 'mocktails' or measure lengths and find the area and perimeter of things in your house• Complete some shape art and label with properties-see Kandinsky style art• Collect some data and create some pie charts like we've practised in school Websites that you could use at home to help you with work (many offering free usage):

www.twinkl.co.uk/offer you can get a month free to twinkl at the moment using code CVDTWINKLHELPS

<https://classroomsecrets.co.uk/> offering free access at the moment.

www.mracdpresent.com/plans-pricing Another site offering a free month to materials

www.topmarks.co.uk Lots of interactive games

Share your experiences and ideas on seesaw (use your given login/password)